

Update on Teacher Allocations and Redeployment Panels at primary level for the 2014/15 school year

Position @ 13 June 2014

Teacher Allocations and redeployment of surplus permanent/CID holding teachers

There are currently a total of 13 surplus permanent/CID holding teachers for redeployment to vacancies in other schools. Click here for the latest summary list for each of the individual redeployment panels.

Panel Officers have been appointed to the following Catholic Dioceses: Achonry, Ardagh & Clonmacnoise, Armagh, Cashel & Emly, Clonfert, Cloyne, Cork, Derry, Dublin, Elphin, Ferns, Galway, Kerry, Kildare/Leighlin, Killaloe, Limerick, Meath, Ossory, Raphoe, Ross and Tuam to facilitate the redeployment of remaining surplus permanent/CID holding teachers. The first of these panel officers was appointed on Wednesday, 7 May, 2014.

The Panel Officer process will commence with the school of the same patronage that is located nearest to the school with the surplus teacher.

Progression to the next stage of recruitment

Progression to the next stage of the recruitment process is dependent on the surplus permanent/CID holding teachers from all the main panels (including those without access to a panel) in the relevant geographical areas being redeployed.

The supplementary panel is now in operation for all panel operators in all areas with the exception of:

- Schools of all patronage in County Mayo
- Catholic schools in the Dioceses of Clonfert, Killala and Tuam
- Schools of all patronage that are within 50 kms of Beara , Co. Kerry
- Schools of all patronage that are within 50 kms of Roscommon town and
- Those individual schools that have been separately notified by the Department and/or Panel Officers in relation to the redeployment of remaining surplus permanent/CID holding teachers.

Please also note that (with the exception of the schools in the geographical areas outlined above and the schools that have been separately notified by the Department and/or Panel Officers in relation to the redeployment of remaining surplus permanent/CID holding teachers) all other schools that have complied with the redeployment arrangements and have notified all vacancies to their relevant panel operators may now also proceed to fill their fixed term posts in the normal manner.

Please also note that (with the exception of the schools in the geographical areas outlined above and the schools that have been separately notified by the Department and/or Panel Officers in relation to the redeployment of remaining surplus permanent/CID holding teachers) all other schools that do not have access to a panel may also proceed to fill their permanent and fixed term posts in the normal manner provided they have already notified their vacancies to the Department in accordance with the arrangements in Circular 0007/2014.

The schools that have been separately notified by the Department and/or Panel Officers are reminded that they are not permitted to commence a recruitment process to fill a permanent or fixed term vacancy in any manner other than through the main redeployment panels until the Department is satisfied that vacant positions are not required for the redeployment of any remaining permanent/CID holding teachers on a main panel.

The Department will continue to liaise with panel operators in relation to progress on the redeployment of surplus permanent/CID holding teachers and those teachers that are on the supplementary panels. Schools should keep in contact with the panel operators for an update on these arrangements and progression to the next stage of recruitment.

It is also important to note that as and when schools that are allowed by the Department to proceed to fill permanent and fixed term posts other than by the redeployment of surplus permanent/CID holding teachers then those schools (irrespective of location and patronage) that were given provisional approval for filling or retaining a teaching post(s) on the basis of projected enrolments in September, 2014 are required to keep open one vacancy in accordance with the arrangements set out in the letter of approval and the additional FAQs document that issued to those schools for such posts.
